Notice.
The public are hereby informed that a Company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY, who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek, for the storage of flour, grain, &c. which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of Feb. next. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kinkney their Agent, to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (fire alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound.
All persons depositing flour, grain, &c. must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse one month 8 cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, &c. Customary allowances for wastage, &c. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek, only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia, Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of the roads leading to it from the westward, being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries, will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this route greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

NEW BANK BILL.
We understand that the Bill "to establish sundry new banks within the Commonwealth," now before the senate, as referred on Saturday to a select committee, to draft a new bill, suitable to the ideas which had been agreed upon in the senate. Yesterday the senate were acting upon the reported bill, filling up the blanks &c. We understand that the bill, as it now stands, contemplates the establishment of two banks: one at Wheeling with one branch at Morgantown, another at Wellsburg, and another at Clarksburg in Harrison County, the principal bank to have a capital of not less than $400,000, and not exceeding $600,000, of which each of the branches is to have not less than $100,000. The other bank to be established at Winchester, with a capital of not less than $400,000, and not exceeding $600,000, with one branch of not less than $100,000 amount, at such place either in the county of Loudoun or the county of Fauquier, as the stockholders shall select; and another of not less than $100,000 amount, at such place as the stockholders shall select within the counties of Jefferson, Berkeley, Hampshire and Hardy, and another at such other place within the same counties as the stockholders shall select of the same amount. Two fifths of the capital of each of the banks to be paid up in specie before the bank goes into operation. In addition to the amount of stock subscribed to these banks, a number of shares equal to 15 per cent. on such amount, are to be created, in the name of the Commonwealth, for the benefit of the "Fund for Internal Improvement"—to be paid for by charging an equal proportion thereof on each share disposed of to subscribers—to be paid in 50 semi-annual instalments: and retained by the president and directors out of the dividends as they are declared.
This bill will probably be finally acted on in the senate to-day.

"Bordeaux, Nov. 29, 1816.
There has been a great change here of late in favor of a liberal policy. The friends of the constitution have gained the ascendancy, and persecution has been put down. The ultra royalists have been obliged to change their tone, and with but few exceptions cry now in favor of the king and the constitution. The change has been sudden and complete, and is much to be rejoiced at.
"You will have received ere this the French budget for 1817: the deficits of 1814, 1815 and 1816, amount to francs 83,051,150
The budget for 1817 is for 100,294,937
The revenue of 1817, including the new taxes, is computed at 774,000,000 Deficit francs 514,294,937 to meet which, the ministers demand thirty millions of Rentes to be placed in their hands, to be accounted for in the budget of 1816.
To aggravate the above evil, the crops of wheat have been short. Bread is scarce and high—6 sous per lb. The merchants are obliged to subscribe more than a million of francs for the purchase of wheat for Bordeaux. This scarcity ought to have been foreseen and provided against sooner by the minister of interior, Mr. Lainé.
We have little or no wine this year, and what we have is very indifferent indeed. Bad as it is, it is selling for 500 to 400 francs per ton, and is totally unfit for exportation. Fourth proof Armagnac brandy would cost 800 a 810 francs on board.
Wheat per 150 lbs. French is worth 35 francs. Flour per barrel 53 francs. The government now grants a premium of 2 and 1-2 francs per 100 lbs. of wheat and flour imported under any flag. Rice is seldom at 50 a 55 francs per cw."

Latest from the East Indies.
By the brig Macedonian, capt. Blake, from Canton, we learn that the East India Company's ship Lord Hughes Campbell, had returned from the Yellow Sea, where she had landed the presents for the British Embassy at Peking: it is said they were well received by the inhabitants in the vicinity of the place of landing, who furnished them with refreshments. When the Mandarin in the country received intelligence of their being there, they immediately put a stop to all intercourse with them, except those attached to the Embassy, and complained of their having landed on the coast without having obtained permission from the Mandarin of the province. The frigate and other ships, after having landed the Embassy had returned. The Embassy were about going over land to Canton, and the Lord Hughes, being a Company's ship, proceeded to Wampoa for a cargo. The Grand Happa of Canton allowed her no pilot to come up the River, but sent three men of war junks along side to stop all communication with her. The Macedonian passed the Lord Hughes in the River and took a number of letters from her for E. rope. It was supposed the object of the Embassy was to obtain redress for commercial abuses practised at Canton by the Mandarins and Hong merchants, and that the Government at Peking. It was likewise supposed that the British would endeavor to obtain a place of deposit at the mouth of the River which will probably not be granted, as any place at the mouth of the River could be easily fortified so as to command the navigation. Sir George Staunton and the Rev. Mr. Morrison attached to the Embassy as interpreters. The prevailing opinion was, that the British Embassy would be coolly received at Peking.

Treasury Chambers.
Dear Sirs—I have had no time in submitting to the Chancellor of the exchequer, the representation from you of the distressed state of the manufactures of your country, and suggesting as measures of relief, the establishment of a minimum of wages, and a prohibition against the exportation of cotton yarn. Mr. Vansittart desires me to assure you that it would give him very great pleasure if any mode could be discovered to afford general relief to the various classes of the manufacturers who are now suffering from reduced wages and want of employment. He apprehends, however, that the adoption of either of the measures now suggested, would rather aggravate than diminish the evils, and in this judgment he is confirmed by the uniform reports of committees of the House of Commons, who have always deprecated all legislative interference in respect to the regulation of wages, preferring that it should be left to the discretion and personal interest of the employers and workmen.

In respect to the prohibition of an export of yarn, it is obvious that this would considerably augment and not diminish the distress arising from want of employment, unless a market could be found for the cloths made of these yarns; unfortunately such market does not at this moment exist any where and therefore must be allowed for the great damage consequent upon nearly twenty years of general war succeeded by peace in every part of the world. To this cannot must be attributed that the present demand for labour in every part of the Kingdom falls so short of the wants we must supply it, and until this excess of supply has been absorbed by the regular demands of peace, it is in vain to expect that distressing changes, in many cases of the community, will not take place. The power even of Parliament, far less the power of government can afford relief; and there cannot be a more complete illustration of the inability of both, than in the present state of agricultural distress in spite of all the efforts of parliament and of the government. This distress is not confined to your manufactures, it pervades nearly every part of the Kingdom, and there appears no substantial remedy but that which time, patience and peace, will bring with them. That their good effect may be soon felt, is the sincere wish of yours, your faithful

ALEXANDRIA.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Two bills of as great importance as have for years been submitted to Congress, were yesterday brought under the consideration of the House of Representatives in a committee of the whole. The first of these was "An act to regulate the Navigation of the United States," the object of which act is to confine the carrying-trade to the vessels of this country and the vessels of those countries from which the articles carried are to be brought. A proviso in this bill to exclude from its operation all those countries who have no similar navigation law of their own, was considered by Mr. Lowndes as so injurious to the effect of the law, that he moved to expunge it. This was opposed by General Smith of Baltimore, in a speech in which, as usual, he displayed a great and exact knowledge of trade, by Mr. Pitkin and by Mr. Hopkinson, while the proposition of Mr. Lowndes was supported by the Speaker and Mr. Calhoun. A pretty long debate was the consequence, the event of which was, that the motion to expunge the proviso was negatived.

The committee then took up the other bill, from the title of which the object will be at once discerned: "A bill to prohibit all commercial intercourse with ports or places into or with which the vessels of the United States are not ordinarily permitted to enter or trade." This being read and an amendment or two proposed to it, the Speaker rose and suggested the propriety of affording the members time to consider the subject with mature deliberation, and proposed that the committee should rise and report progress. Mr. Grosvenor intimated to the house that as they were about to enter upon a measure of such a delicate and deeply important nature, that it must be beset with difficulties, while an error of any kind, whether it were that of going beyond the mark, or falling short of it, would be fatal to the object in view and greatly mischievous; it would be expedient to agree to the rising of the committee. Mr. Calhoun too spoke to the same effect. The Speaker's motion therefore passed, and this day the important measure is to be discussed in the committee.

I am really anxious to see how the ORATORS will deport themselves on this occasion—whether they will for this once, have the modesty to compare their puny grasp with the enormous magnitude of this subject, & retiring from it with a conscientious regard to the vast interests which the public have at stake, leave the discussion of the various topics that will arise, to the competent members, who in no numerous assembly in the world can be many.—Let me be understood—when I say "orators" I do not mean the eloquent and highly gifted statesmen—the Randolphs, the Hopkisons, the Grosvenors, the Clays, the Calhouns, the Websters, the Lawndeses or the Gastons, &c. &c. though in none of these should I expect to find a Burleigh, a Calbert, an Adam Smith, a Sully, or a Pitt—but I mean those who because they have a constitutional right to deliver their opinions, talk away by wholesale—measure out their intellectual dowdiness by bales, as if to make it up in quantity what it wants in intrinsic worth—drizzle out words, for hours by the dial, without saying any thing—dress up the most vapid common-place in noisy fustian and call it (as unhappily it is) speaking—and after impeding the progress of national business by a prostration of "the butter-woman's state to market," for days together; exult at the thoughts, that with the help of the Stenographer's language, they'll pass at home for orators of consequence. On some former occasions, had I had the privilege to speak I would have said "spare the house!"—But on this momentous concern I would say to them, "spare, oh spare the country!"

REBELLION AT PRINCETON.

Extract of a Letter from Princeton, N. J. dated Jan. 23, 1817.

"Have you heard that Satan has fallen like lightning from Heaven upon this college? I mean have you heard of the dreadful scenes through which we have been passing for several days? I will mention some of the particulars. Some difficulty seems to have existed between the Faculty and students, for a considerable time. The students, it appears, have supposed that the lessons assigned them were of an unreasonable length, and that their requests requests that they might be abridged were treated, a little too unceremoniously. They at length became very much exasperated, and last Saturday about fifty or sixty of them entered into a combination to alarm and insult the government. Accordingly about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, they assembled as silently as possible, fastened the outside doors, also the doors of the tutors, and those students who were not engaged in the conspiracy, and then raised a shout which was heard in almost every part of the town. Mr. Slack, the professor who lived nearest the college, immediately went to quell the disturbance, but found the doors all fastened. He, however, succeeded in climbing through a window, and he was no sooner discovered to be among them than the watch word 'scamper' was given, and every man scampered to his room, and left the professor groping in the dark. Sunday and Monday college was comparatively quiet. On Tuesday a report was in circulation that the students had determined to blow up and burn the college, the next night. On anticipate the execution of this plan, the faculty assembled to examine the affair of Saturday night, and selected about 15 of the most suspicious characters and dismissed them. Several of them, however, were innocent, and the circumstance of their being unjustly dismissed, increased the opposition, and rendered the league which had been formed against the government, still more formidable. A paper went among them, which was subscribed by about a hundred who thus obligated themselves to resist the authority of college at any expense or hazard whatever. The standard of rebellion was now raised, all the college exercises were suspended, the students had taken possession of the college, and all began to shout REBELLION. Just before night a meeting was held by the students in the prayer hall, and a committee appointed to remonstrate against the decision of the Faculty, and to request, or rather I believe, command, that the persons who had been dismissed should be restored, intimating at the same time that some heavy judgments were in store for them if they refused to comply. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, the Faculty announced to them in a very decided and summary manner, that they should not listen to any of their propositions. They repeated their remonstrance but without success. They then retired to the college, fastened all the outside doors, and placed large sticks of wood in the windows, which they threatened to throw upon the first person who attempted to open the doors. Almost every student was provided with a dirk and pair of pistols, beside a cask of powder they had obtained, nobody knows how, and by which it was supposed they would blow up the college. The college resounded with the most horrid yells which can be conceived. Now and then, they were to be seen coming out of the windows, marching about the college yard, brandishing their clubs, and disks, uttering the most dreadful profanity, and performing all the horrid feats which you would expect from a company of mad Indians. The whole town was in a constant alarm all day. About 6 o'clock col. Beatty's house was discovered to be on fire, but it had made so little progress that we found no difficulty in extinguishing it. Within 15 minutes we were alarmed a second time by the smell of smoke, and upon examination found that a fire had been kindled in the cellar, though it appeared to have been communicated but a few minutes before, and was also easily extinguished. No person in particular is suspected, though there is reason to believe that it was done, either by the instigation of the students or some incendiary, who wished to avail himself of an opportunity to plunder. The streets were patrolled as they have been several nights by 30 or 40 men, and the inhabitants were every moment anticipating the alarm of fire, till about 12 o'clock when it was actually given. The students had set fire to the college, but it had made so little progress that it was extinguished immediately. Before light the college was deserted by nearly all the rebels; seven only have been arrested. Several have left town with permission who were not engaged in the rebellion, and about 30 I suppose remain. After a complete purgation is made perhaps there may be 50 left. I went over the college this morning surveying the desolations. The doors and windows are nearly all broken, the furniture dashed to pieces, and REBELLION written on the walls every where. Mr. Saunders, one of the tutors, has, I am informed lost all his sermons and other valuable papers. The trustees are now in session, but their decision is not yet published. The government of college will be unable fairly to establish their authority, but the injury to the institution must be incalculable. In the midst of all such convulsions, how consoling to reflect that "the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth."

William Lee, Esq. late Consul at Bordeaux, is appointed Accountant of the War Department, in the place of the late Col. Lear.

Extract of a letter from New Orleans dated Dec. 21, to a house in Boston: "In my last I informed you of the failure of Barber, Dent & Co. The firm of Bartlett & Co. failed day before yesterday, partly on account of the first failure. The circumstances have had an injurious effect on public confidence, which was before bad enough. He so good as to tell Mr. — I shall be obliged to send his factory goods back; daily sacrifices are made at auction, at less than one third of his invoice prices. The Admittance is as yet without any prospect of a freight, as well as many others. Cotton still continues 25 a 30, but the scarcity of money must bring it down. Exchange on Boston at par, and gold sale; Specie plenty at 21 per cent. adv.; B own Sheetings 16.50; Ravens Duck 9.50 a 10.75; Office, prime, 18 1/4 cts; Pepper 23 a 25."

Egypt.—Letters of a very recent date give the following details respecting Egypt: "The country has greatly improved under the government of Pacha Amour Ali. The city of Alexandria has been placed in a state of defence; the troops are well treated and regularly paid and more volunteers offered themselves than were wanted. Amour Ali is in his 40th year. He was originally an adventurer who exercised the trade of piracy in a small vessel; his successes attracted him 600, with whose assistance he succeeded in dominating over the chief cities of Lower Egypt; since which time his army has greatly increased. He exercises his powers, particularly the French and English, and there is every probability, if he continues to govern Egypt, it will become a very flourishing country."

EARTHQUAKES.—The gazettes of a few days past have made mention of numerous agitations of the earth, which have all been called by the appalling name of Earthquakes. Two are reported to have been felt in Canada; two in Charleston, S. C. both on the 30th December, and one of thirty seconds continuance! One at Richmond and three in Baltimore, on the 28th inst. one preceded by lightning! These agitations appear to have been confined to small limits. After a very dry season succeeded by heavy rains and after the rapid succession of warm and freezing weather there will frequently be local tremblings of the ground, from the confinement of air in its cavities; but they seldom are attended with serious effects—should excite no undue alarm and ought not to receive the name which appears peculiarly appropriate to those tremendous visitations of Heaven, which the annals of Italy and the West Indies have recorded, but which—thanks to a good Providence—our country has heretofore been exempted from.

On the 31st of Dec. the schr. Decatur experienced two shocks in lat. 27, 25, long. 79. 55, one of which felt as if the vessel was striking a rock or a wreck.

SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PA TENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.
A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bi lions and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratefu to the inventor's feelings, in several par of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilming ton, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at ea of the above places can be adduced, wh have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than col umns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously pro posed as an infallible cure, but the inven tor has every possible reason that can re sult from extensive experience, for be lieving that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequen ly in cases esteemed desperate, and be yond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by pe sons in every situation, and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its mor bid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colic which is so of ten of fatal consequences. A dose neve fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for re moving habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably effe cacious in preventing and curing disor ders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserv ed for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DES
TROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense num ber of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dan gerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy what ever to others of similar titles so com monly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly in contains nothing but what constitution scent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the pro duction of worms, and many fatal dis orders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross hu mours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Ter res, or large round worm; the Ascari des, or small man-worm; the Cucurbi tina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so cal led from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of oints. It is most hurtful and most diffi cult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grind ing of the teeth in sleep; irregular appe tite, sometimes loathing food, and some times voracious; purging, with slimy & fætid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the sto mach; slow fever, with small and ir regular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face swated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate re course to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occa sionally during the warm season, will ef fectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chint—a dreadful dis order, which annually destroys the hands of the infer part of our citizens in Maryland the mildest and m tain steady eating and was restored to his old strength & great number who in an advanced stage of this fat complaint. Particular and plain instruc tions are given for every part of the ne cessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appea rance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthmatic cough, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cos metic, perfectly innocent and safe, free the basis of other lotions) and of un paralleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspira tion, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, ren dering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to in jure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable me dicine for the speedy relief and perman ent cure of the various complaints result ing from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates un favourable to the constitution, the immod erate use of tea, frequent intoxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercu ry, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c. remedies.
